Product strategy

The Underlying is a basket representing an actively-managed notional portfolio mainly consisting of equities, ETFs and mutual funds, with a focus on the Next Generation investment themes (Arising Asia, Digital Disruption, Energy Transition, Feeding the World, and Shifting Lifestyles), which notional composition and weighting is discretionarily-managed over the course of the term of the Products by the Advisor.

The notional portfolio includes up to 100 stocks which represents JB Next Generation's strongest conviction ideas based on their investment process. The notional portfolio is the result of a top-down and bottom-up analysis irrespective of the current in-house macro scenario and sector allocation.

Management summary

AMC Manager comment for June 2020

The global index continued to rally in June adding 3.2%, finishing its best performing Q2 since 2009. Global equities have rallied +37% from March lows, recovering to a level just 9% below the February highs. During the month, markets were buoyed by a positive reopening narrative, central bank-driven liquidity, potential vaccines/treatments, and economic data that surprised on the upside (PMI, Consumer Confidence). By region, Emerging Markets (+7%) & Europe (+3.9%) outperformed the US (+2.1%) & Japan (-0.1%). By sector, Tech continued to lead (+7.6%), followed by other cyclical sectors such as Consumer Discretionary (+5.2%) and Materials (+4.2%), whilst Utilities (-1.3%), Health Care (-0.85%), and Energy (-0.8%) fell. Our Next Generation AMC was up 3.4% for the month, which brought the year-to-date performance to +1.25%, outperforming the global index by 7.5%.

'Arising Asia' (+31.6%) & 'Digital Disruption' (+3.6%) counted as the best performing themes in June, while 'Feeding the World' (-1.7%) & 'Shifting Lifestyles' (-1.2%) were the least performing ones. The best performing stocks in the portfolio included China's second largest semiconductor company, Hua Hong Semiconductor (+86.6%), on increased localization efforts by China to mitigate the impacts of the US tech ban which targets Huawei & other Chinese companies on the US entity list; and MedTech company Microport (+39.6%) rallying further on strategic investors participating in its new share offering to finance company's business expansion. The worst-performing stocks included Wirecard (-72.6%) on news of a substantial and systematic accounting fraud; and China city gas provider China Resources Gas (-10.6%) due to its peer's worse-than-expected earnings.

During the month, we took some profits in Microsoft, Salesforce, ServiceNow and SAP, and invested the proceeds proportionally across 'Feeding the World' related stocks, namely Tyson Food, CF Industries, FMC Corp, Nutrien, Corteva, Mosaic, and Sysco Corp. We exited the small remaining positions in Wirecard right after the news that the auditor was not able to verify a substantial amount of cash balances. The cash weight decreased to 2.1%.

Actively Managed Certificates (AMCs) are complex financial products which involve a high degree of risk. They are intended exclusively for investors who have the knowledge and experience necessary to understand all risks and merits involved. AMCs are not comparable with conventional debts or equity securities and will not be covered by any financial compensation or insurance scheme. In particular, the AMC does not constitute a participation in a collective investment scheme. It constitutes a direct, unconditional, unsecured and unsubordinated obligation of the issuer. The product's value is not only dependent on the development of the underlying(s), but also on the credit-worthiness of the issuer. As AMCs may be denominated in another currency than the one of the investor's home member state, fluctuations in exchange rates may adversely affect the market value of the product. AMCs were not registered with the local regulator and are not publicly distributable outside of Switzerland. Not all the risks and merits associated with an AMC can be disclosed in this publication. Therefore, potential investors should consult the entire product documentation related to the specific issuance before making any investment decision.
